POLITICS BEFORE
HEALTH, SAYS T. R.

By Associated Press.

Oyster Bay, June 27.—Four months of absolute rest is prescribed for Colonel Roosevelt by his physician, who informed him that he was suffering from an enlargement of the spleen and a loss of vitality as the result of the malarial fever he contracted in the South American jungles.

"But in four months the campaign will be over," the Colonel said. He added that he considered it impossible for him to follow his physician's advice.

Colonel Roosevelt has abandoned his campaign trip across the continent which had been arranged tentatively for September. He also telegraphed to Pittsburgh that he would make one speech there Tuesday night. Two had been arranged.

The change in the ex-president's plan came after an examination made last night by Dr. Alexander Lambert, of New York. Dr. Lambert told him he must rest four months. He urged the Colonel to give up his trip to Pittsburgh, to make no speeches during the campaign and, as far as possible, give up everything that would tax his strength. He explained, the Colonel said, that it would require a long period to shake off the effects of the malaria and that if this was not accomplished the disease might become so securely fastened on him that he would never recover his full strength. It might even impair his mental vigor, the physician said.

Colonel Roosevelt decided not to heed his physician's warning. He said it would be impossible for him to give up campaign work.

"I think Dr. Lambert took a gloomy view," Colonel Roosevelt said laughingly, "but I shall take care of myself as well as I can and see that the malaria does not get settled in my system."

Upon his return from Pittsburgh Colonel Roosevelt is to see Dr. Holbrook Curtis, of New York, a throat specialist. He hopes that Dr. Curtis will take a more optimistic view of his condition than did Dr. Lambert, but whatever the physician says of the possible consequences he is determined, he said, to go on with the campaign in a limited way.

GAVE UP AFTER
KILLING BRIDE

By Associated Press.

Lowell, Mass., June 27.—Wilfred Joseph Blais, 22, called at the police station today and informed the officials that he had killed his wife, a bride of four months. He was locked up on a charge of murder. At his home the police found the body of the woman, who had apparently been strangled. The imprints of fingers were on her throat and her hands and arms were lacerated. A chair, broken to pieces and a shattered lamp chimney bore evidence of a struggle.

QUAKE DROVE
VESSEL ASHORE

Batavia, Java, June 27.—The British steamer Kintuck, reported overdue yesterday after a violent earthquake in Sumatra, was found today by a steamer sent out to search for her. She had been driven ashore in the Straits of Sunda.

KNOCKS OFF
KING'S HAT

London, June 27.—Militant suffragettes evaded the police today and bombarded King George and Queen Mary with leaflets at the entrance to Hyde Park. A bundle of the papers struck the king's hat and knocked it sideways while the queen's parasol caught another shower of the pamphlets.

AUTO VICTIMS

By Associated Press.

Saugus, Mass., June 27.—Miss Anna Powers, of Boston was burned to death and Oscar J. Manseau, also of Boston, was badly injured when an automobile in which they were driving skidded into a ditch, overturned and caught fire today.

WHOLE REBEL OUTFIT
SUED FOR WAR AUTOS

El Paso, Texas, June 27.—An American automobile company instituted a suit against "the Constitutional party army or government of Mexico" today in a local court. The sum alleged to be due on armored automobiles purchased by the Constitutionalists is demanded. The auto, which was in use in the battle of Torreon, was purchased by one of General Villa's officers, it is alleged. General Carranza is named in the suit as well as three of Villa's military and civil officers.

GENERAL WOTHERSPOON,
NEW HEAD OF ARMY,
BUSY OVER MEXICO.
Washington, June 27.—Major General William W. Wotherspoon is the new chief of staff of the United States army. As head of the army war college he is active in watching the Mexican situation. He succeeded Major General Leonard Wood, who was placed in charge of the department of the east.

MAJ. GEN. W. W. WOTHERSPOON

INCOME WILL BE MORE THAN
WAS FIGURED

By Associated Press.

Washington, June 27.—Democratic Leader Underwood told the House today that the new tariff law would produce $292,000,000 for the year, $22,000,000 more than the estimates. The income tax this year, he said, would produce $85,000,000 or $10,000,000 less than the estimates, because incomes were not taxed for the full year. He urged that the treasury million dollar fund for collection of the tax be increased to a million and a half dollars.

BOYS STILL SORE

By Associated Press.

Eagle Pass, Texas, June 27.—No signs that a definite understanding has been reached with the object of healing the breach between General Carranza and General Villa have been apparent at Carranza's headquarters, according to travelers who arrived here today from Saltillo and Monterrey. The utmost secrecy is maintained at Carranza's headquarters regarding developments and a strict censorship has been enforced, they said.

CREW IN PERIL
ON LAKE VESSEL

Superior, Wisconsin, June 27.—The steamer Mataafa, is reported to be going to pieces at the Superior entry to the Twin Ports harbor. The life savers are working in an effort to save the crew. A tremendous sea is running.

WILL HELP SOME

Charleston, W. Va., June 27.—Fred O. Blue, tax commissioner, today received from the estate of the late Senator Stephen Elkins, a check for $75,666, the inheritance tax.

FRENCH ANXIOUS
TO WITNESS FIGHT

By Associated Press.

Paris, France, June 27.—French sports and thousands of American and other foreign followers of boxing were gathered in Paris today to await the beginning of the fight tonight for the heavyweight championship of the world. Frank Moran, of Pittsburg, and Jack Johnson, holder of the title since defeating Jeffries July 4, 1910 at Reno, will meet in the ring at the great Vélodrome d'Hiver at 10:30 o'clock tonight. They will fight twenty rounds under Queensbury rules.

Johnson said today "I was never more sure of victory in my life than I am today. It is now a question of true sportsmanship. If Moran wins tonight he will win by strength, skill and better generalship. If he wins I shall be the first to congratulate him." Johnson has made plans for a tour of Europe in an automobile after the fight.

Moran said: "It will be a tough fight while it lasts but I don't think it will last long. I cannot figure that the fight is going to last 20 rounds. I am in the best condition of my career and naturally do not expect to be the loser." Moran added that whether he won or lost he expected to be battered. Should he win he will pay a visit to Rome.

Much interest is displayed in Moran's style in the ring which is not so well known as that of Johnson's. Moran said the longer he could draw out the fight the better his chances would be to get in decisive blows. He asserted that he felt the responsibility resting on him of representing the white race. His four sisters in Pittsburg today sent encouraging messages while an uncle who is dying in Ireland, wrote him a farewell letter in which he said he was praying for his victory.

The crowd at the arena tonight will be in full dress, as Parisians regard the match in the same way as they would an important night at the opera.

ASK FOR FUNDS
TO BUY MINES

By Associated Press.

Washington, June 27.—The war department asked Congress today for $17,075 for the purchase of submarine mines, and necessary assistance to operate them, for blowing channels leading to our principal seaports and for continuing torpedo experiments.

The acting chief of ordnance explained that the estimate was to "reimburse the appropriation for the current fiscal year for submarine mine material for continental United States, for the cost of material transferred in an emergency to the Philippine Islands." There was no further explanation.

IN CONFERENCE ON NEW HAVEN

By Associated Press.

Washington, June 27.—Chairman Howard Elliott, of the New Haven railroad, and Walker D. Hines, general counsel, today called on Interstate Commerce Commissioner McChord and filed a brief in connection with the recent investigation of the road's financial affairs.

TELLS WOMEN THAT THEY WILL INEVITABLY BE GIVEN SUFFRAGE RIGHTS

The speaker today informed a delegation of women that female suffrage is inevitable and he further stated that he hopes that women, when they come to run the government, will do a better job than have the men. ....

THIRD STORM
IN ONE WEEK

La Crosse, Wis., June 27.—The third violent storm of the week today devastated large sections of Wisconsin, Minnesota and Iowa. Though less severe than the tornado of Wednesday morning the storm did more damage generally. Water ran from two to four feet deep in the streets of La Crosse. The Burlington, St. Paul Northwestern and Southeastern railroads all experienced severe washouts. In spots, from 500 to 1000 feet of track was taken out. Train service is crippled in all directions.

PARTY TAKES
FATAL PLUNGE

Pittsburgh, June 27.—Miss Annie Loeffler, of Pittsburgh, was killed, Benton Davis, of Hot Springs, Ark., was perhaps fatally injured and five other persons were less seriously hurt early today, when an automobile in which they were riding ran off the road near Sharpsburg into a deep ravine. The machine caught fire and some of the injured were badly burned.

BEGINNING MARCH
ON SAN LUIS POTOSI

Tampico, June 26.—via Laredo, Tex., June 27.—Thirty-one cars, with upwards of 1,000 men, ammunition and supplies, began the advance on San Luis Potosi today after General Jesus Carranza returned from a scouting expedition and reported favorable traveling conditions. Four forces are now concentrating against San Luis Potosi.

ASSAULT THE
PORK BARREL

Washington, June 27.—Another stumbling block in the path of early passage of the appropriation bills appeared when Senator Borah announced that he expects to conduct a fight against the river and harbor bill, the so-called pork barrel measure. The bill, as reported by the senate, carries about $53,000,000, an increase over the house bill of about $10,000,000.

Senator Burton, another Republican, already has criticised the measure in a minority report and it was understood last night that other Republican senators may join these two. Although Senator Simmons, in charge of the bill, probably will be able to muster more than enough votes to put the measure through, a determined handful of opponents can give trouble and cause delay.

WILSON LEADERS IN
SENATE AND HOUSE
FOR NEW TRUST LAWS.

Washington, June 27.—The administration's anti-trust program is now before the senate. First is the federal trade commission bill. This measure was recently completed by the committee on interstate commerce, of which Senator Francis Newlands of Nevada is chairman. The other measures on the program, the Clayton anti-trust bill and the railroad securities bill, are being considered in committee, but are expected to be reported to the senate soon. All three bills have been passed by the house. Congressman Henry D. Clayton of Alabama, has been active in pushing the administration's anti-trust plans.

of national treasury funds there. Mr. Pesqueira told General Villa that he considered it useless to deny "the actual facts so well known here at the border." General Villa's answer to this telegram, sent on June 20, has not yet arrived.

Pesqueira also issued a statement asserting that Villa was surrounded by certain persons, "some of whom were the direct cause of the disaster that befell the administration of President Madero."

MANIAC'S DEED

Fort Lauderdale, Florida, June 27.—J. M. Heimbigner, who came here recently from Hebron, North Dakota, took his two small sons into the woods here today and killed them with a hatchet. He then committed suicide by drinking poison. It is believed Heimbigner's mind was unbalanced.

4500 STANDING IN THE BREAD LINES

Salem, Mass., June 27.—Measures for the relief of 18,000 persons made homeless in the conflagration are proceeding with military precision. More than 3100 were utterly dependent upon the relief committee for shelter, while 4500 waited patiently in the various bread lines for the food which streamed into the city in abundance.

Those cared for in the tented camps were of the poorer class, mostly foreigners. Nearly all the well-to-do had found refuge with friends and neighbors elsewhere.

The list of dead as a direct result of the fire is placed at four. The identified dead were Mrs. Jennie Cunningham and Samuel P. Withey, a grand army veteran. Another body was so badly burned that its sex could not be determined. The fourth body was that of a child.

An insurance adjuster who went carefully over the devastated district estimated the loss at $12,000,000, of which $10,000,000 was covered by insurance. This insurance, it was stated, was well distributed, the heaviest amount falling upon any one company being $400,000.

The Naumkeag Steam Cotton Company was the heaviest individual loser. The loss on its great plant was estimated at $3,500,000. Fifteen hundred employees were thrown out of work by the destruction of these mills. The total number added by the fire to the ranks of the unemployed was estimated at 9000.

C. H. Frick of Pittsburgh sent a check for $25,000.

Hand-in-hand with measure for relief went preparations for rebuilding the city.

The active work of relief was temporarily in the hands of the state militia directed by Adjutant General Cole, who commanded 750 men from the Eighth and Ninth regiments. These established camps one at the baseball grounds near the high school and the other at Forest River park, on the water front.

Property holders answering inquiries of friends announced their losses

BURIED CITY IS UNEARTHED

By Associated Press.

London, June 27.—Recent explorations in the Nile Valley has resulted in the discovery of a buried Egyptian city as well preserved as Pompeii, according to the Rev. Professor A. H. Sayce, the famous Egyptologist, in an address at the Royal Society.

The discovery was made by Professor Garstang, investigating at Medro. Walls fifteen feet thick surrounded a royal city containing two palaces, public baths, gymnasiums, streets and private dwellings. Trees set in pits lined with brick bordered the streets, and walls, quays and landing stages were built along the riverside. This city was the center of the iron industry of the time, and the slag from the smelting furnaces shows that enough metal was worked there to supply the whole of northern Africa.

An observatory at the bottom of an underground bathing establishment, found by Professor Garstang, is of interest to modern science, as its walls were covered with astronomical calculations.

GOVERNMENT MEN HERE AFTER HORSES

Dr. J. H. Hornbaker, of Front Royal, Virginia, arrived Friday evening to assist Capt. W. W. Whitson in selecting a car load of remounts from a large number of "prospects" in the hands of Mr. Chas. Allen.

Capt. Whitson was delayed by the C. H. & D. wreck, but arrived late Saturday morning, and the two men at once took up the work of selecting the animals.

An interesting incident has come to light in connection with the Front Royal government station. Welton Green of near this city sold the first 150 acres to the government for opening the army station at that point. The station now includes 5300 acres, and $200,000 worth of new buildings are now being erected upon the tract.

POLITICIANS DREW MONEY

Chicago, June 27.—A special United States grand jury will be called to investigate the affairs of the La Salle Street National bank, the predecessor of the La Salle Street Trust and Savings bank, it was announced by James H. Wilkerson, United States district attorney.

A preliminary report of government accountants has revealed that between $600,000 and $850,000 was loaned to companies in which officers of the bank were interested, to officers of the bank themselves and to political friends.

The film story was taken from Klopstock's "Messiah." It is a pretentious example of cinematographic art. The court, ruling against it, bases its decision on a former decision, holding the Christian religion to be a part of the public order, against whose disturbance the police are empowered to act. It considers the film in itself likely to offend, and declares a further possibility of offense is the fact that it might be presented in connection with comic scenes.

A loan of $40,000 made to Thomas H. Payne, former United States senator from Kentucky, had been reduced by payments, investigation showed, until his present indebtedness to the bank is $2646 which he says he will pay on demand.

Since the closing of the bank Federal Judge Landis has ordered that banks receiving bankruptcy funds must give bonds equal to the amount they have for deposit. Formerly a nominal bond was required.

Besides questioning officers of the bank and others, State's Attorney Hoyne has been in frequent consultation with Mrs. Mary Quinlan Kuhns, who married James J. Brady, state auditor in Michigan a short time after her divorce here from Kuhns. Mrs. Kuhns, who is suing Brady to validate her marriage in this state, gave Hoyne much information, but he refused to state whether it involved Brady.

Womanly Woman to Defend Suffrage Cause in Debate Before Local Chautauqua Audience.

MRS. ROBERT M. LAFOLLETTE

It will be a matter of delight to all the women of this section to learn that Mrs. Bella C. LaFollette, the charming and able wife of the noted Wisconsin Senator, Robert M. LaFollette, is to appear on the local Chautauqua platform this summer. Mrs. LaFollette has been her husband's partner and champion in the bitter political fights of twenty years. Classmates at the University of Wisconsin, married soon after their graduation, with kindred aims and ambitions, their married life has been an inspiring record of mutual helpfulness and achievement. Mrs. LaFollette has reared a family of four children, but has still had time to study law, contribute notable articles to many publications of national circulation, lead the fight for woman's suffrage in her home state and assist the work in other sections of the Union, in addition to actively assisting her husband in much arduous labor. A womanly woman, capable, earnest, with a charming personality, she will win the hearts of the women of this community. She appears in a notable debate on "Woman Suffrage," taking the affirmative of the question against Miss Lucy Price, Secretary of the Ohio Anti-Suffrage Association.

The Chautauqua and the Lyceum represent the new freedom that President Wilson represents. They are one of the chief sources of that spirit; they made both Wilson and Bryan possible. They are great seasonal gatherings of the common people for rest, for fun, for common thinking. There is freedom there; free thought, free speech, and, some day, there may be a free people there.—Harper's Weekly.

Great Educational Value.

The purely educational values of the Chautauqua might be elaborated upon to an almost unlimited extent, but at the same time that it may be and is educational in the most direct and effective manner it incidentally affords the cleanest of entertainment, and that at a time when much that is unclean, degrading and debasing is clamoring for attention.

RAIN DELAYS THIS MAN'S THRESHING

A citizen near Staunton had made arrangements to be the first farmer in the county to have his wheat threshed, and had planned to begin Monday, but the continued rains have resulted in the man postponing his wheat threshing until later.

It will probably be a week or ten days before threshing opens in real earnest.

The Clafflin Failure

The failure of H. D. Clafflin and Company of New York City on Thursday, is the greatest in mercantile circles which the history of the country records.

The mammoth dry goods house and affiliated stores report a liability of over thirty-five millions of dollars.

The Clafflin stores numbered scores and one or more was located in nearly all of the principle cities of the country. At Cincinnati the George W. McAlpin store and the Fair Store were known as affiliated Clafflin stores, but the managers of both of these houses report that the failure of the parent house, while it may temporarily embarrass them to some extent, will not seriously involve them.

The shifting of the trade center in New York City and the inability of the concern on that account, to hold the enormous trade necessary to sustain it, is given by the officials of the Clafflin Company as one of the principal reasons for the crash.

While the assets of the New York house are reported to be some five millions of dollars or more in excess of the liabilities and the solvency of the firm is declared by the officers of the company, in business circles the impression seems general that the company is insolvent.

From the facts so far made public there is nothing in connection with the failure to indicate that it was caused by any general derangement in business conditions or that it will have any appreciable effect on general business conditions.

The failure seems to have been the result of the inability of the firm to borrow more money. The great store had reached the zenith and had passed into eclipse, trade currents in the metropolis diverted business and the millions of dollars poured into the concern during the last few years proved insufficient to sustain the company in the face of the shifting of trade centers.

The cause of the failure of the great house of Clafflin and Company is the cause of hundreds of other failures every day—plain insolvency and the hopelessness of a fight against the trade currents.

Great as the concern was, its passing under the conditions announced is not likely to be disastrous in its effect even on the affiliated stores and certainly not in other channels of business.

Ex-Governor Herrick's Return

Myron T. Herrick, ex-governor of Ohio, ambassador to France and one of Ohio's first citizens is returning from his post of duty as representative of this nation at the French capital.

Ex-Governor Herrick's public service is that unostentatious but effective kind too often likely to pass unnoticed unless attention is directed to it. The distinguished Clevelander is unlike many other public servants in that he is not a good advertiser. Because of the fact that he is not constantly rushing into print recounting each one of his official acts and magnifying their importance, it is not remarkable that a great many people in this big country of ours fail to appreciate the full value of his service.

As ambassador to the French republic the ex-governor of Ohio has discharged each and every one of the duties imposed upon him with credit to himself and honor to his nation and, in a manner highly satisfactory to the French people. He has so conducted the affairs of the United States embassy at Paris that the French people regret to see him leave, and are as genuine as they are emphatic in their expressions of appreciation of the good work he has done.

United States officials and all citizens in close touch with events regardless of party, will cordially welcome the able Ohioan back to his native land.

When men like ex-Governor Herrick are retired from the public service as a result of an election, people are sorry that we must have elections. If all public servants were as patriotic and as efficient as ex-Governor Herrick an extension of the Civil Service laws, so as to include higher positions of trust and duty than it does now would meet with popular approval.

Poetry For Today

HOT WEATHER THOUGHTS.
Somewhere the sun's not shining,
Somewhere 'mid snow and ice
No one for cold is pining—
It must be very nice!

Somewhere—the thought is pleasing,
A blizzard's blowing now,
And happy folks are freezing—
'Twere paradise now!

Somewhere in this creation,
The people at this time
Aren't in a perspiration—
Oh lovely, far off clime!

Somewhere beneath his "kivers"
Of blankets, robes and skins
A happy hunter shivers
With frostbites on his shins.

Somewhere are sun dogs gleaming
On endless fields of snow;
There in his hut is dreaming
The joyous Eskimo!

Somewhere, all cold and clammy
There lies a frigid land
That our kind Uncle Sammy
Should annex out of hand!

Their Names Shall Honored Be Until the End of Time.

It will not be denied that the men who, on July 4, 1776, pledged "their lives, their fortunes and their sacred honor" in behalf of our national liberty deserve the most profound reverence from every American citizen. By arranging in rime the names of the signers according to the colonies from which they were delegated the Atlanta Constitution assists the youthful learner in remembering the names of the fathers of American independence:

The Massachusetts delegation

That signed our glorious Declaration

Were Hancock, Gerry, Robert Paine,

The great John Adams, and again

Another Adams, Samuel by name.

New Hampshire, called the Granite State,

Sent Whipple, Bartlett, Thornton great,

Alike in counsel and debate.

Rhode Island's delegates, we see,

Were Stephen Hopkins and Ellery,

Connecticut, excelled by none,

With Sherman, Wolcott, Williams and Huntington.

New York as delegates employed

Lewis Morris and William Floyd,

With Francis Lewis and Livingston,

Who died before the war was done,

New Jersey to the congress sent

Her honored college president,

John Witherspoon, with Stockton, Clark,

Hart, Hopkinson, all men of mark,

Though Pennsylvania need not blush

For Morris, Morton, Wilson, Rush,

And, though most men might seem as dross.

To Clymer, Taylor, Smith and Ross,

To Franklin, each his tribute brings,

Who neither lightning feared nor kings.

The men from Delaware—indeed

As true as steel in utmost need—

Were Rodney with McKean and Read.

"My Maryland" is proud to own

Her Carroll, Paca, Chase and Stone.

On old Virginia's roll we see,

The gifted Richard Henry Lee,

And, just as earnest to be free,

His brother, Francis Lightfoot Lee,

And Wythe and Nelson, patriots true,

With Harrison and Braxton, too,

But of them all there was not one

As great as Thomas Jefferson.

North Carolina's chosen men

We know were Hooper, Hewes and Penn.

And South Carolina's vote was one—

By Rutledge, Heyward, Lynch and Middleton.

From Georgia came Gwinnett and Hall

And Walton, too, the last of all

Who signed our precious Declaration,

The pride and glory of the nation.

DIED FOR HIS IDOL.

Heroism That Led to Napoleon's Title of "The Little Corporal."

It is related that Napoleon was once badly defeated at Coblenz by the Cossacks. After the battle he was surrounded by enemies and would have lost his life had he not been saved by the presence of mind of one of his soldiers, Corporal Spohn.

Realizing that Napoleon's only chance for life was in getting off the battlefield unrecognized, the corporal begged the emperor to change hats and horses with him. The change was made ere the smoke of battle had cleared away, and Napoleon, with his corporal's hat and mounted on a poor steed, rode away unnoticed, the Cossacks crowding around the corporal. Taking him prisoner, they led him in triumph to the Russian general. There the mistake was soon discovered, and the corporal's brave act cost him his life.

According to the Coblenz legend, Napoleon, in remembrance of Spohn's self sacrifice, always after this preferred a corporal's uniform to any other and wore it so often that his men came to speak of him familiarly as "Le Petit Caporal."—From "The Rhine." Translated by G. C. T. Bartley.

CURVE HID BURNING TRESTLE ON C. H. & D.

Passengers and Train Crew Have Miraculous Escape From Death When Burning Trestle Causes Wreck.

PROPERTY LOSS WILL REACH NEAR $10,000

Wreck Train Works All Night and Nearly All of Today Clearing Up Debris—Engineer Hoban and Fireman Pickens Badly Injured But Will Recover—Great Excitement Caused When News Spread That Many Washington Citizens Had Been Killed.

A burning trestle, hidden by a curve, was the cause of the disastrous wreck on the C. H. & D. railroad midway between Fairview and Austin, late Friday afternoon, in which Engineer Tom Hoban and Fireman Fletcher Pickens, both of Dayton, were badly injured, and the remainder of the train crew and passengers given the scare of their lives.

The wreck occurred after four o'clock when west-bound passenger train No. 203, in charge of Conductor Patrick Sweeney, rounded a sharp curve and when within a few yards of the trestle, which is some 45 feet in length, and spans a small run near the Allen Hegler farm, Hoban discovered that smoke which had been pouring up apparently from the roadside, was coming from the trestle. Fireman Pickens discovered the danger and shouting to Engineer Hoban, leaped to the roadside.

Engineer Hoban, who has since been commended for his coolness, stuck to his post until he had shoved the throttle home and applied the emergency brakes, and when he attempted to leap, it was too late. With a sudden jar the train began to come to a standstill, but the engine and tender were forced out upon the weakened trestle, where the rails spread, the tender turned half around and the baggage coach and front end of the smoker were left directly over the leaping flames.

The engine did not then go through the bridge, which was so ten feet in height.

In the crash Engineer Hoban sustained a fractured knee-cap and other painful injuries. In leaping Pickens struck upon his head and arms, suffering horrible gashes in the forehead from which the blood poured in profusion. His left wrist and back were sprained, and he suffered several ugly contusions about the shoulders and arms. He was rescued from a dangerous position by some of the passengers.

Almost instantly the flames began to eat into the baggage car and smoker. The baggage man, who was bruised by flying baggage, barely had time to collect the valuables entrusted into his care, throw them into the safe and close the door, when he was forced to leap from the burning car. The mail clerk also was compelled to beat a hasty retreat and practically all of the mail perished.

The thoroughly frightened passengers poured from the coaches and none were injured, although all were badly shaken by the sudden stopping of the train.

The flames were soon devouring the baggage car and smoker, and all baggage, express and mail went up in smoke with the cars and trestle. The rear coach was uncoupled and pushed back to a place of safety.

The trestle soon gave way under the heavy load, and most of the wreck dropped into the run. The engine was left partly in the chasm, with the front portion resting upon the bank.

The news of the disaster quickly reached this city, and there was a general stampede of automobiles and other vehicles for the scene of the disaster. It was feared a large number of persons had been seriously injured.

HEAVY ELECTRICAL STORMS SWEEP THE ENTIRE COUNTY

Heavy Downpours Accompany The Storms — Damage Remarkably Small Considering Great Amount Of Lightning — 400 Telephones Are Put Out of Commission and Fallen Live Wire Causes Small Blaze.

A series of violent electrical storms the most severe in months and at the same time doing the least damage, swept over Fayette county Friday night and early Saturday morning accompanied by high winds and heavy rainfall.

It is estimated that in the twelve hours to which the storm period was confined something like a thousand thunderbolts fell from the heavens in this county, but save for minor damages to outbuildings and trees and the usual temporary paralysis to telephone service no serious damage is reported from any part of the county.

The first and most severe storm descended on Washington about 6 o'clock Friday evening. Most of the damage locally was done at this time.

The severe electrical shocks accompanying the storm brought in reports Saturday of damage to nearly 400 telephones under the control of the two local exchanges.

The crossing of a telephone wire with that of a disabled light wire caused a small fire at the home of Joseph Crosswhite on Harrison street and the fire department was called out about 7 o'clock, fortunately during a lull in the storm. On arrival the fire had been extinguished.

Some little trouble was caused by the flooding of a portion of Court street at the intersection of North, caused by a plugged sewer.

Over the county the damage was small and scattered. Lightning struck on the farm of Isaac Miller, three quarters of a mile south of Bloomingburg and killed four hogs but other than this there is no report of damage to any living thing.

Trees and small buildings were struck by lightning and rooted up by high winds in different localities but a freight engine at Fairview was ordered to take the caboose and hurry to the scene, and brought the two injured men and most of the passengers to this city. The two men were taken to the Stift-Todhunter offices and their wounds were dressed. Hoban was later taken to the Fayette hospital, while Pickens has returned to Dayton. A large crowd met the relief train upon its arrival here.

A wreck train from Dayton arrived upon the scene soon after dark, and worked steadily until late this afternoon, when the wreck was cleared up, the bridge rebuilt, and everything placed in order for traffic.

Trains were detoured over the B. & O. by way of Midland City until the road was opened to traffic.

The loss to the railroad company will reach near the $10,000 mark it is claimed.

That a far more serious wreck was averted is probably due to the coolness of Engineer Hoban.

Among Washington people on the ill-fated train were Hon. and Mrs. L. Hadley and granddaughter, Elizabeth Springer, Miss Prue Taylor, Mr. J. W. Anderson, Mrs. J. Star Smith, a Dahl-millikan salesman and others.

no serious damage is reported.

Reports were gleaned from New Holland, Good Hope, Jeffersonville, Bloomingburg, Millidgeville, New Martinsburg and other Fayette county villages Saturday and from each locality the storm damage is reported light as compared with the benefits to crops, the greatest damage being to telephone lines.

The heavy rains were welcomed by every one.

AUTO TAKES DITCH OCCUPANTS ESCAPE

While Frank Richert with an automobile load was on the way to view the C. H. & D. wreck Friday evening, in rounding a sharp curve the machine skidded and a moment later had plunged over the embankment and crashed through a barbed wire fence, badly damaging the machine.

Fortunately no one was badly hurt. Other machines picked up the occupants of the machine and returned them to this city. It was necessary to send another machine after the damaged auto.

WOMEN REPRIMANDED AND TURNED LOOSE

The Wolfe and Bryant women, of near the Stove factory, who faced

Mayor Coffey on a charge of disorderly conduct, Friday afternoon, were finally released pending good behavior.

Before dismissing them, Mayor Coffey informed them that the next time they were arrested and he was not at his office at the time, that they would be locked up until he arrived.

MAY RECALL THE GRAND JURY SOON

So far no action has been taken, but if the grand jury is recalled, this will probably be done within the next week or ten days.

ONE of the clever musical entertainments of the local Chautauqua will be that given by the Stratfords, vocalists and instrumentalists, a company of versatile young men, coached by Elias Day, the leading Lyceum and Chautauqua coach of America. There is snap and vim in everything they do. They sing and play as though they liked it, and the audience can't help catching the enthusiasm of the moment. Their brass quartet work is especially noteworthy, and Mr. Duffield, the reader of the company, adds strength to the program. Coached by a rare artist who knows every angle of platform presentation, they present their entertainment in the most striking and original way. A big success for several seasons past, they come to our Chautauqua with the same personnel, and a record of enthusiastic approval which augurs a delightful presentation.

Wilson Moore and family, residing on Yeoman street, suffered a severe shock Friday evening when a thunderbolt struck their home.

The entire family was stunned for some little time, and one of the children did not revive until the frantic mother had worked over it for quite a while.

The bolt, outside of shattering a window and splintering the house to some extent, did no other damage, and Saturday the family had almost completely recovered from the effects of the shock.

HIGHEST COURT UPHOLDS GRAVES

Columbus, Ohio, June 27.—Before recessing for the summer, the supreme court yesterday dealt a death blow to the Equity association, which a year ago attempted to secure a referendum on the Green workmen's compensation law, and established the constitutionality of the Greenlund H-quin license law.

By the court's decree in the compensation case, the action of Secretary of State Charles H. Graves in throwing out the entire original petition of the Equity Association for referendum and his refusal to accept a supplemental petition apparently have been upheld.

Only the court's decision in refusing the writ of mandamus was announced. A detailed opinion is to be handed down.

A year ago the Equity Association filed with Secretary Graves a petition purporting to contain the signatures of 70,000 electors for a referendum on the compensation law. Governor Cox received information which led him to believe that fraud had been perpetrated and that thousands of the signatures were forgeries. With a number of assistants, he started an investigation, which proved the report was well founded. This evidence was turned over to Secretary Graves, who also conducted an inquiry covering many weeks. Numerous arrests of petition peddlers were made and many confessions of fraud were received.

At the hearing before Secretary Graves the Equity Association withdrew, alleging that it was beyond the purview of the secretary's authority to conduct such an investigation. Mr. Graves held the petitions a nullity, declaring them so involved in fraud that it was impossible to tell the valid signatures from forgeries. Charles S. Gongwer of Cleveland, secretary of the Equity Association, then offered to file 30,000 supplemental signatures, but these were refused by Mr. Graves on the ground that, as the original petition was null, there was nothing to be supplemented.

Nacional de Panama Co., Limited, with the Earl of Schrewebury and Talbot as Chairman, which proposes to start a second Monte Carlo at Panama gives an alluring description of the wonderful gambling and amusement resort it intends to launch.

The company is to acquire 250 acres of land, and to operate under a charter "ensuring absolute freedom from all interference for a period of twenty-five years," according to the promise of its prospectus, but no statement is made of what authority is to give the charter, and to ensure the freedom from interference. The Casino is to include most of the attractions of Monte Carlo, a big hotel, an orchid garden which will be one of the wonders of the world, a bathing pavilion, pigeon shooting, tennis grounds, golf courses, and principally the gambling hall.

Panama is advertised as a splendid winter resort, while passengers will have 24 hours to spend on land while the steamers traverse the canal, thus ensuring a constant patronage. Profits to the stockholders must be large because the roulette tables will be run on a system giving the bank a much larger percentage of profits than the Monte Carlo company gets from the play there. Forty per cent dividends on the four pound share are predicted by the prospectus.

THINKS T.R. MAY RUN

Oyster Bay, June 27.—The impression prevailed in Oyster Bay today that despite Colonel Roosevelt's repeated assertions that he would not run for governor, he might be forced to do so. The colonel went over the whole subject again today with Geo. W. Perkins.

John H. Parker of New Orleans, La., state chairman, reports his party expects to elect congressmen this fall and had a fighting chance of carrying the state ticket. He added that two Wilson presidential electors, five members of the Democratic state committee and 21 Democratic members of the lower branch of the legislature had joined the progressive party.

INVENTOR OF SMOKELESS GUN POWDER

Pensacola, Florida, June 27.—General G. N. Whistler, 66, U. S. A., retired, is dead at his summer home here. He invented smokeless powder and a system of fire control for artillery coast defense by which officers in a central station can map the exact location of approaching vessels.

VAN WERT STORM HIT

Van Wert, June 27.—A small cyclone, accompanied by a severe electrical storm, wind and heavy rains, passed over this county last night, wrecking buildings, fences and damaging crops, killing stock and injuring several people.

Earl Woodruff, while employed on a farm was struck by a flying barn door and was found unconscious with a fractured skull and internal injuries. Homes were unroofed and barns on the farms of John Schneg, Andrew and Fred Etzler and Henry Shanefelt were wrecked and stock was killed. Buildings on the Alexander Freck farm were damaged and blown off their foundations.

In this city plate glass windows were cracked and lightning struck the belfry of the German Presbyterian church, wrecking the same, also the belfry of the Second M. E. church. Telephone and electric wires are down.

VILLAGE DEEP UNDER WATER

Lacrosse, Wis., June 27.—A cloud burst at Lanesboro, Minn., during the night made the village, which has a population of 1,000 persons, a lake six feet deep. The Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railway tracks are under three feet of water for 3,000 feet. Railway service is abandoned.

Lanesboro cannot be reached by telephone and rescuers are obliged to go in boats. No reports of loss of life thus far have been reported.

SECOND TIME IN ONE YEAR

Celina, June 27.—For the second time this year, robbers blew open the safe in the post office at Mendon village, 11 miles northeast of Celina. About $500 in money and stamps was stolen. No clue.

FIGHTING TO OVERCOME SLIDE

By Associated Press.

Panama, June 27.—Although the rainy season has been on for more than a month, the saturation of the earth has not increased the Cucaracha slide which the dredges have been racing to overcome. It is estimated that the dirt is now being removed twice as fast as it slides in the channel, and that a level of rest for the slide may soon be reached.

The depth of the channel is now over 38 feet and with a width of more than 200 feet it was more than sufficient to accommodate the Panama Railroad Steamship Alliance, of 4,000 tons, which was the first ocean liner to pass through the canal, without mishap. Even a 10,000-ton ship would have no difficulty, but the canal is not yet ready for the bigger warships.

Over 3,000 women clerks are employed in the British postal service.

Isn't it possible that the information might be useful to you some day? And don't you think you'd like to know anyway? Or at least be able to look it up easily if you wanted to?

It takes less than one minute to find those names and the districts, and the party to which the men belong, in our 1914 OHIO ALMANAC, just issued.

And if you are not interested in the people who represent you and make most of the laws that govern you, there are 100,000 other facts that you WILL be interested in to be found in this splendid HANDBOOK, and all found with equal facility. ## MIKE DONLIN WANTS TO BE TRADED FOR MANAGERIAL JOB IN NEW LEAGUE

Mike Donlin, pinch puncher of the New York Giants, wants to be traded for a managerial post in the new major league which is to be formed from four International circuit clubs and four from the American association. Mike has spent most of his time on the bench this season and hankers for the field of action. Buck Herzog and Harry McCormick, former teammates of Donlin's, have both made good as team leaders, and Mike is confident of success if given the chance.

BASEBALL DIPLOMACY.

How Connie Mack Arouses Confidence in His Players.

In the American Magazine Eddie Collins of the Philadelphia Athletics tells how Manager Connie Mack inspires his players with confidence in themselves: "There comes to me an incident when he built McInnes' confidence wonderfully when Stuffy was still doing bench duty. In a game against Chicago a critical situation was looming up. In the eighth inning the score was 5 to 4 against us. After two were out Barry signaled and Lapp came to bat. By this time Mack was begin- ning to fidget and squirm uneasily in his seat, something he always does when the crisis of a game seems about to break. I heard Harry Davis, who was then captain, say:

"'Connie! Are you going to let bat?'

"Davis had mentioned the pitcher, a notoriously weak hitter. I saw McInnes watching Mack out of the corner of his eye. The youngster trembled eagerly, hoping for a chance to go to bat in the pinch, and I think Mack saw him too, for he said to Davis rather loudly:

"'You know very well who is going to bat if Lapp gets on. There's only one man I'd put up—eh?'

"Davis inclined his head toward McInnes, and Mack nodded. McInnes saw all this, as Mack meant he should. Subsequently Lapp smashed out a two base hit, putting Barry on third, and McInnes, told to go to bat, rushed out from the dugout swelling with confidence. He had heard Mack as much as say there was 'no other man on the team he would trust in this pinch' but

McInnes at that moment possessed overwhelming self confidence. A moment later he drove out the hit that won the game. Mack's little bit of diplomacy had met with success."

THE WALL STREET JOURNAL DEFENDS COX TAX PLANS

Governor Cox's tax policy is stoutly defended by the Wall Street Journal editorially, replying to a letter received from an Elyria lawyer protesting against the new system and the use of corporation stockholders' lists to ferret out tax dodgers. The lawyer complained bitterly against the use of the stockholders' lists as a means of revealing the taxable wealth of investors. In answer to this criticism the Wall Street Journal says, editorially: "If Governor Cox of Ohio has secured the names of the stockholders of any corporation it is a credit to his enterprise, and he deserves an engagement on the best newspaper in Ohio at a large salary when his term is completed. He not only has a new sense, but he realizes that publicity is the best protection for all the people. If these taxes are legitimate the stockholders in the U. S. Steel Corporation, or the New York Central, or the National Tube Company should pay their proper quota to the support of their state. This newspaper does not stand for lying to evade taxes or anything else. It believes that unjust taxation should be fought in a proper and constitutional way. If the taxpayers of Ohio have made honest returns, they need not care two cents whether Governor Cox had secured these lists of stockholders or not. Let this matter be perfectly plain. People who evade their taxes and complain if they are found out, need not apply to the Wall Street Journal for defense. If they are constitutionally wronged, they have their constitutional remedy, and if they do not like the government of the state they are living in they can take their capital elsewhere."

PAT KNEW THE KIND OF BUG IT WAS.

HENRY A. ADRIAN, "HE LUTHER BURBANK MAN."

TWO verdant Irishmen, but late of the ould sod, were among the auditors at a western Chautauqua last summer when Prof. Henry A. Adrian of Santa Barbara, Cal., was giving his lecture on "Luther Burbank and His Work," which he will give here during Chautauqua week. They had listened intently while Adrian told of the marvelous achievements of Burbank in removing the spines from cactus, growing potatoes of prodigious size, changing the hue of a rose, growing a new variety of peas to order, removing the pit from a plum, producing cherries twice the size of any heretofore seen, and had gazed in open-mouthed astonishment at the specimen plants shown by the lecturer. They were plainly "stumped" and loath to accept all they heard at its face value.

While the round table discussion was going on they moved out from the tent and sat down in the shade of a tree. While they were resting an enormous land turtle waddled slowly into view. "Be gobs," said one of the swed spectators, "What is that?"

"Be quiet, you blamed fool, don't let everybody know ye're jest over," said Pat, "that's a Burbank potato bug."

the Salvadorean protest was based on the Gulf of Fonseca, where the United States is to get concessions for a naval base if the treaty is ratified.

REVENUE CUTTER SERVICE.

How It Came to Be Placed Under the Treasury Department.

The United States revenue cutter service is a military arm of the government attached to and under the direction of the treasury department. The service was organized in 1790 and constituted the original naval force of the country. There was at that time no navy department, and the service was placed under the treasury department, where it has remained ever since.

It is charged with the enforcement of the navigation and customs laws of the United States, the assistance of vessels in distress, the protection of the sealing industry in Alaska, the enforcement of the quarantine laws, the destruction of derelicts and other floating dangers to navigation and numerous other duties appropriate to its class of vessels. Each winter, by direction of the president, a number of the cutters patrol the coast for the special purpose of assisting vessels in distress.

The service co-operates with the navy when directed by the president and has so co-operated in every war in which the United States has been engaged. It is sometimes called the revenue marine service, but revenue cutter service is the proper name. There are forty-three cutters in the service, and they carry from one to five or six guns each.—Philadelphia Press.

JESSIE REMEMBERED.

And the Worst of It Was That She Insisted on Going into Particulars.

Mrs. Goby had been in her new home a month when she received a call from Mrs. Toby. Mrs. Toby was accompanied by her five-year-old daughter, Jessie.

"What a beautiful house you have, Mrs. Goby!" said Mrs. Toby.

"Isn't it nice?"

"It is indeed," replied Mrs. Toby.

"And, do you know, I intended calling on you a fortnight ago, but have been so busy."

"Oh, mamma," chimed in little Jessie, "you did come!"

"How dare you talk like that? Speak when you're spoken to," interrupted Mrs. Toby, coloring up.

Tears welled into the child's eyes, and Mrs. Goby sympathetically said: "There, don't cry, little dear. You must have been mistaken."

"I wasn't," blurted out Jessie. "Mamma knocked over so many times and then said to me: 'Come on. I suppose we shall have to go to the expense of getting tea in town.'"

The silence that followed was frigid.

The Minister Was Puzzled.

At a marriage service performed some time ago in a little country church in Georgia, when the minister said in a solemn tone, "Wilt thou have this man to be thy wedded husband?" instead of the woman answering for herself a gruff man's voice answered:

"I will."

The minister looked up, very much perplexed, and paused. He repeated the sentence, and again the same gruff voice answered, "I will."

Again the minister looked up surprised, not knowing what to make of it, when one of the groomsmen at the end of the row said:

"She is deaf. I am answering for her."—Lippincott's.

POLITICS BEFORE
HEALTH, SAYS R.

By Associated Press.

Oyster Bay, June 27.—Four months of absolute rest is prescribed for Colonel Roosevelt by his physician, who informed him that he was suffering from an enlargement of the spleen and a loss of vitality as the result of the malarial fever he contracted in the South American jungles.

"But in four months the campaign will be over," the Colonel said. He added that he considered it impossible for him to follow his physician's advice.

Colonel Roosevelt has abandoned his campaign trip across the continent which had been arranged tentatively for September. He also telegraphed to Pittsburg that he would make one speech there Tuesday night. Two had been arranged.

The change in the ex-president's plan came after an examination made last night by Dr. Alexander Lambert, of New York. Dr. Lambert told him he must rest four months. He urged the Colonel to give up his trip to Pittsburg, to make no speeches during the campaign and, as far as possible, give up everything that would tax his strength. He explained, the Colonel said, that it would require a long period to shake off the effects of the malaria and that if this was not accomplished the disease might become so securely fastened on him that he would never recover his full strength. It might even impair his mental vigor, the physician said.

Colonel Roosevelt decided not to heed his physician's warning. He said it would be impossible for him to give up campaign work.

"I think Dr. Lambert took a gloomy view," Colonel Roosevelt said laughingly, "but I shall take care of myself as well as I can and see that the malaria does not get settled in my system."

Upon his return from Pittsburg Colonel Roosevelt is to see Dr. Holbrook Curtis, of New York, a throat specialist. He hopes that Dr. Curtis will take a more optimistic view of his condition than did Dr. Lambert, but whatever the physician says of the possible consequences he is determined, he said, to go on with the campaign in a limited way.

GAVE UP AFTER
KILLING BRIDE

By Associated Press.

Lowell, Mass., June 27.—Wilfred Joseph Blais, 22, called at the police station today and informed the officials that he had killed his wife, a bride of four months. He was locked up on a charge of murder. At his home the police found the body of the woman, who had apparently been strangled. The imprints of fingers were on her throat and her hands and arms were lacerated. A chair, broken to pieces and a shattered lamp chimney bore evidence of a struggle.

QUAKE DROVE
VESSEL ASHORE

Batavia, Java, June 27.—The British steamer Kintuck, reported overdue yesterday after a violent earthquake in Sumatra, was found today by a steamer sent out to search for her. She had been driven ashore in the Straits of Sunda.

KNOCKS OFF
KING'S HAT

London, June 27.—Militant suffragettes evaded the police today and bombarded King George and Queen Mary with leaflets at the entrance to Hyde Park. A bundle of the papers struck the king's hat and knocked it sideways while the queen's parasol caught another shower of the pamphlets.

AUTO VICTIMS

By Associated Press.

Saugus, Mass., June 27.—Miss Anna Powers, of Boston was burned to death and Oscar J. Manseau, also of Boston, was badly injured when an automobile in which they were driving skidded into a ditch, overturned and caught fire today.

WHOLE REBEL OUTFIT
SUED FOR WAR AUTOS

By Associated Press.

El Paso, Texas, June 27.—An American automobile company instituted a suit against "the Constitutional party army or government of Mexico" today in a local court. The sum alleged to be due on armored automobiles purchased by the Constitutionalists is demanded. The auto, which was in use in the battle of Torreon, was purchased by one of General Villa's officers, it is alleged. General Carranza is named in the suit as well as three of Villa's military and civil officers.

INCOME WILL BE MORE THAN

By Associated Press.

Washington, June 27.—Democratic Leader Underwood told the House today that the new tariff law would produce $292,000,000 for the year, $22,000,000 more than the estimates. The income tax this year, he said, would produce $85,000,000 or $10,000,000 less than the estimates, because incomes were not taxed for the full year. He urged that the treasury million dollar fund for collection of the tax be increased to a million and a half dollars.

BOYS STILL SORE

By Associated Press.

Eagle Pass, Texas, June 27.—No signs that a definite understanding has been reached with the object of healing the breach between General Carranza and General Villa have been apparent at Carranza's headquarters, according to travelers who arrived here today from Saltillo and Monterey. The utmost secrecy is maintained at Carranza's headquarters regarding developments and a strict censorship has been enforced, they said.

FRENCH ANXIOUS
TO WITNESS FIGHT

By Associated Press.

Paris, France, June 27.—French sports and thousands of American and other foreign followers of boxing were gathered in Paris today to await the beginning of the fight tonight for the heavyweight championship of the world. Frank Moran, of Pittsburgh, and Jack Johnson, holder of the title since defeating Jeffries July 4, 1910 at Reno, will meet in the ring at the great Vélodrome d'Hiver at 10:30 o'clock tonight. They will fight twenty rounds under Queensberry rules.

Johnson said today "I was never more sure of victory in my life than I am today. It is now a question of true sportsmanship. If Moran wins tonight he will win by strength, skill and better generalship. If he wins I shall be the first to congratulate him." Johnson has made plans for a tour of Europe in an automobile after the fight.

Moran said: "It will be a tough fight while it lasts but I don't think it will last long. I cannot figure that the fight is going to last 20 rounds. I am in the best condition of my career and naturally do not expect to be the loser." Moran added that whether he won or lost he expected to be battered. Should he win he will pay a visit to Rome.

Much interest is displayed in Moran's style in the ring which is not so well known as that of Johnson's. Moran said the longer he could draw out the fight the better his chances would be to get decisive blows. He asserted that he felt the responsibility resting on him of representing the white race. His four sisters in Pittsburgh today sent encouraging messages while an uncle who is dying in Ireland, wrote him a farewell letter in which he said he was praying for his victory.

The crowd at the arena tonight will be in full dress, as Parisians regard the match in the same way as they would an important night at the opera.

ASK FOR FUNDS
TO BUY MINES

By Associated Press.

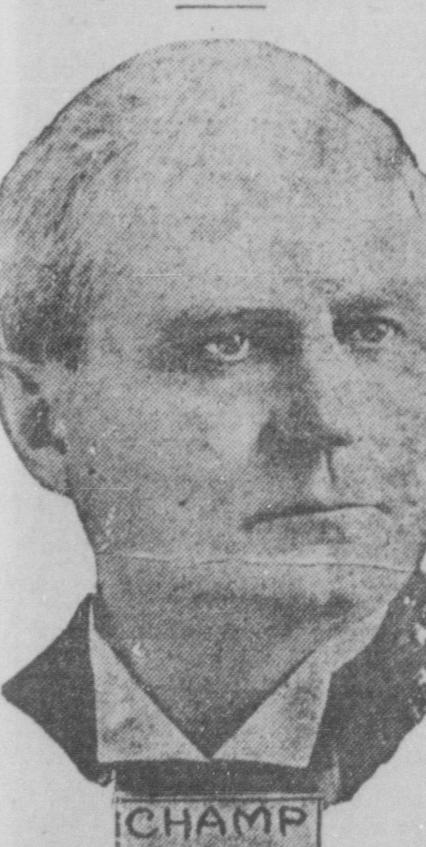

Washington, June 27.—The war department asked Congress today for $17,075 for the purchase of submarine mines, and necessary assistance to operate them, for blowing channels leading to our principal seaports and for continuing torpedo experiments.

The acting chief of ordnance explained that the estimate was to reimburse the appropriation for the current fiscal year for submarine mine material for continental United States, for the cost of material transferred in an emergency to the Philippine Islands." There was no further explanation.

THIRD STORM
IN ONE WEEK

La Crosse, Wis., June 27.—The third violent storm of the week today devastated large sections of Wisconsin, Minnesota and Iowa. Though less severe than the tornado of Wednesday morning the storm did more damage generally. Water ran from two to four feet deep in the streets of La Crosse. The Burlington, St. Paul Northwestern and Southeastern railroads all experienced severe washouts. In spots, from 500 to 1000 feet of track was taken out. Train service is crippled in all directions.

PARTY TAKES
FATAL PLUNGE

By Associated Press.

Pittsburgh, June 27.—Miss Annie Loeffler, of Pittsburgh, was killed, Benton Davis, of Hot Springs, Ark., was perhaps fatally injured and five other persons were less seriously hurt early today, when an automobile in which they were riding ran off the road near Sharpsburg into a deep ravine. The machine caught fire and some of the injured were badly burned.

BEGINNING MARCH
ON SAN LUIS POTOSI

Tampico, June 26.—via Laredo, Tex., June 27.—Thirty-one cars, with upwards of 1,000 men, ammunition and supplies, began the advance on San Luis Potosi today after General Jesus Carranza returned from a scouting expedition and reported favorable traveling conditions. Four forces are now concentrating against San Luis Potosi.

VILLA ROASTED
BY PESQUEIRA

El Paso, Texas, June 27.—Discussion of the Carranza-Villa estrangement was reopened by Roberto Pesqueira, confidential agent for the Constitutionalists here, who formerly was stationed at Washington. He gave out the text of one of his telegrams in a series of communications with General Villa, in which he criticised the northern military zone commander for denying the arrests by his troops of national Constitutionalists officials at Juarez and the confiscation of national treasury funds there.

WILSON LEADERS IN
FOR NEW TRUST LAWS

Washington, June 27.—The administration's anti-trust program is now before the senate. First is the federal trade commission bill. This measure was recently completed by the committee on interstate commerce, of which Senator Francis Newlands of Nevada is chairman. The other measures on the program, the Clayton anti-trust bill and the railroad securities bill, are being considered in committee, but are expected to be reported to the senate soon. All three bills have been passed by the house. Congressman Henry D. Clayton of Alabama, has been active in pushing the administration's anti-trust plans.

Mr. Pesqueira told General Villa that he considered it useless to deny "the actual facts so well known here at the border." General Villa's answer to this telegram, sent on June 20, has not yet arrived.

Pesqueira also issued a statement asserting that Villa was surrounded by certain persons, "some of whom were the direct cause of the disaster that befell the administration of President Madero."

MANIAC'S DEED

Fort Lauderdale, Florida, June 27.—J. M. Heimburger, who came here recently from Hebron, North Dakota, took his two small sons into the woods here today and killed them with a hatchet. He then committed suicide by drinking poison. It is believed Heimburger's mind was unbalanced.

ASSAULT THE
PORK BARREL

Washington, June 27.—Another stumbling block in the path of early passage of the appropriation bills appeared when Senator Borah announced that he expects to conduct a fight against the river and harbor bill, the so-called pork barrel measure. The bill, as reported by the senate, carries about $53,000,000, an increase over the house bill of about $10,000. Senator Burton, another Republican, already has criticised the measure in a minority report and it was understood last night that other Republicans may join these two. Although Senator Simmons, in charge of the bill, probably will be able to muster more than enough votes to put the measure through, a determined handful of opponents can give trouble and cause delay.

4500 STANDING IN THE BREAD LINES

Salem, Mass., June 27.—Measures for the relief of 18,000 persons made homeless in the conflagration are proceeding with military precision. More than 3100 were utterly dependent upon the relief committee for shelter, while 4500 waited patiently in the various bread lines for the food which streamed into the city in abundance.

Those cared for in the tented camps were of the poorer class, mostly foreigners. Nearly all the well-to-do had found refuge with friends and neighbors elsewhere.

The list of dead as a direct result of the fire is placed at four. The identified dead were Mrs. Jennie Cunningham and Samuel P. Withey, a grand army veteran. Another body was so badly burned that its sex could not be determined. The fourth body was that of a child.

An insurance adjuster who went carefully over the devastated district estimated the loss at $12,000,000, of which $10,000,000 was covered by insurance. This insurance, it was stated, was well distributed, the heaviest amount falling upon any one company being $400,000.

The Naumkeag Steam Cotton Company was the heaviest individual loser. The loss on its great plant was estimated at $3,500,000. Fifteen hundred employees were thrown out of work by the destruction of these mills. The total number added by the fire to the ranks of the unemployed was estimated at 9000.

C. H. Frick of Pittsburg sent a check for $25,000.

Hand-in-hand with measure for relief went preparations for rebuilding the city.

The active work of relief was temporarily in the hands of the state militia directed by Adjutant General Cole, who commanded 750 men from the Eighth and Ninth regiments. These established camps, one at the baseball grounds near the high school and the other at Forest River park, on the water front.

Property holders answering inquiries of friends announced their losses

BURIED CITY IS UNEARTHED

By Associated Press.

London, June 27.—Recent explorations in the Nile Valley has resulted in the discovery of a buried Egyptian city as well preserved as Pompeii, according to the Rev. Professor A. H. Sayce, the famous Egyptologist, in an address at the Royal Society.

The discovery was made by Professor Garstang, investigating at Medine. Walls fifteen feet thick surrounded a royal city containing two palaces, public baths, gymnasiums, streets and private dwellings. Trees set in pits lined with brick bordered the streets, and walls, quays and landing stages were built along the riverside. This city was the center of the iron industry of the time, and the slag from the smelting furnaces shows that enough metal was worked there to supply the whole of northern Africa.

An observatory at the bottom of an underground bathing establishment, found by Professor Garstang, is of interest to modern science, as its walls were covered with astronomical calculations.

GOVERNMENT MEN HERE AFTER HORSES

Dr. J. H. Hornbaker, of Front Royal, Virginia, arrived Friday evening to assist Capt. W. W. Whitson in selecting a car load of remounts from a large number of "prospects" in the hands of Mr. Chas. Allen.

Capt. Whitson was delayed by the C. H. & D. wreck, but arrived late Saturday morning, and the two men at once took up the work of selecting the animals.

An interesting incident has come to light in connection with the Front Royal government station. Welton Green of near this city sold the first 150 acres to the government for opening the army station at that point. The station now includes 5300 acres, and $200,000 worth of new buildings are now being erected upon the tract.

POLITICIANS DREW MONEY

Chicago, June 27.—A special United States grand jury will be called to investigate the affairs of the La Salle Street National bank, the predecessor of the La Salle Street Trust and Savings bank, it was announced by James H. Wilkerson, United States district attorney.

A preliminary report of government accountants has revealed that between $600,000 and $850,000 was loaned to companies in which officers of the bank were interested, to officers of the bank themselves and to political friends.

A loan of $40,000 made to Thomas H. Paynter, former United States senator from Kentucky, had been reduced by payments, investigation showed, until his present indebtedness to the bank is $2646 which he says he will pay on demand.

Since the closing of the bank Federal Judge Landis has ordered that banks receiving bankruptcy funds must give bonds equal to the amount they have for deposit. Formerly a nominal bond was required.

Besides questioning officers of the bank and others, State's Attorney Hoyne has been in frequent consultation with Mrs. Mary Quinlan Kuhns, who married James J. Brady, state auditor in Michigan a short time after her divorce here from Kuhns. Mrs. Kuhns, who is suing Brady to validate her marriage in this state, gave Hoyne much information, but he refused to state whether it involved Brady.

Womanly Woman to Defend Suffrage Cause in Debate Before Local Chautauqua Audience.

MRS. ROBERT M. LAFOLLETTE

It will be a matter of delight to all the women of this section to learn that Mrs. Bella C. LaFollette, the charming and able wife of the noted Wisconsin Senator, Robert M. LaFollette, is to appear on the local Chautauqua platform this summer. Mrs. LaFollette has been her husband's partner and champion in the bitter political fights of twenty years. Classmates at the University of Wisconsin, married soon after their graduation, with kindred aims and ambitions, their married life has been an inspiring record of mutual helpfulness and achievement. Mrs. LaFollette has reared a family of four children, but has still had time to study law, contribute notable articles to many publications of national circulation, lead the fight for woman's suffrage in her home state and assist the work in other sections of the Union, in addition to actively assisting her husband in much arduous labor. A woman woman, capable, earnest, with a charming personality, she will win the hearts of the women of this community. She appears in a notable debate on "Woman Suffrage," taking the affirmative of the question against Miss Lucy Price, Secretary of the Ohio Anti-Suffrage Association.

The Chautauqua and the Lyceum represent the new freedom that President Wilson represents. They are one of the chief sources of that spirit; they made both Wilson and Bryan possible. They are great seasonal gatherings of the common people for rest, for fun, for common thinking. There is freedom there; free thought, free speech, and, some day, there may be a free people there.—Harper's Weekly.

Great Educational Value.

The purely educational values of the Chautauqua might be elaborated upon to an almost unlimited extent, but at the same time that it may be and is educational in the most direct and effective manner it incidentally affords the cleanest of entertainment and that at a time when much that is unclean, degrading and debasing is clamoring for attention.

RAIN DELAYS THIS MAN'S THRESHING

A citizen near Staunton had made arrangements to be the first farmer in the county to have his wheat threshed, and had planned to begin Monday, but the continued rains have resulted in the man postponing his wheat threshing until later.

It will probably be a week or ten days before threshing opens in real earnest.

The Clafflin Failure

The failure of H. D. Clafflin and Company of New York City on Thursday, is the greatest in mercantile circles which the history of the country records.

The mammoth dry goods house and affiliated stores report a liability of over thirty-five millions of dollars.

The Clafflin stores numbered scores and one or more was located in nearly all of the principle cities of the country. At Cincinnati the George W. McAlpin store and the Fair Store were known as affiliated Clafflin stores, but the managers of both of these houses report that the failure of the parent house, while it may temporarily embarrass them to some extent, will not seriously involve them.

The shifting of the trade center in New York City and the inability of the concern on that account, to hold the enormous trade necessary to sustain it, is given by the officials of the Clafflin Company as one of the principal reasons for the crash.

While the assets of the New York house are reported to be some five millions of dollars or more in excess of the liabilities and the solvency of the firm is declared by the officers of the company, in business circles the impression seems general that the company is insolvent.

From the facts so far made public there is nothing in connection with the failure to indicate that it was caused by any general derangement in business conditions or that it will have any appreciable effect on general business conditions.

The failure seems to have been the result of the inability of the firm to borrow more money. The great store had reached the zenith and had passed into eclipse, trade currents in the metropolis diverted business and the millions of dollars poured into the concern during the last few years proved insufficient to sustain the company in the face of the shifting of trade centers.

The cause of the failure of the great house of Clafflin and Company is the cause of hundreds of other failures every day—plain insolvency and the hopelessness of a fight against the trade currents.

Great as the concern was, its passing under the conditions announced is not likely to be disastrous in its effect even on the affiliated stores and certainly not in other channels of business.

Ex-Governor Herrick's Return

Myron T. Herrick, ex-governor of Ohio, ambassador to France and one of Ohio's first citizens is returning from his post of duty as representative of this nation at the French capital.

Ex-Governor Herrick's public service is that unostentatious but effective kind too often likely to pass unnoticed unless attention is directed to it. The distinguished Clevelander is unlike many other public servants in that he is not a good advertiser. Because of the fact that he is not constantly rushing into print recounting each one of his official acts and magnifying their importance, it is not remarkable that a great many people in this big country of ours fail to appreciate the full value of his service.

As ambassador to the French republic the ex-governor of Ohio has discharged each and every one of the duties imposed upon him with credit to himself and honor to his nation and in a manner highly satisfactory to the French people. He has so conducted the affairs of the United States embassy at Paris that the French people regret to see him leave, and are as genuine as they are emphatic in their expressions of appreciation of the good work he has done.

United States officials and all citizens in close touch with events regardless of party, will cordially welcome the able Ohioan back to his native land.

When men like ex-Governor Herrick are retired from the public service as a result of an election, people are sorry that we must have elections. If all public servants were as patriotic and as efficient as ex-Governor Herrick an extension of the Civil Service laws, so as to include higher positions of trust and duty than it does now would meet with popular approval.

Poetry For Today

HOT WEATHER THOUGHTS.
Somewhere the sun's not shining,
Somewhere 'mid snow and ice
No one for cold is pining—
It must be very nice!

Somewhere—the thought is pleasing,
A blizzard's blowing now,
And happy folks are freezing—
'Twere paradise now!

Somewhere in this creation,
The people at this time
Aren't in a perspiration—
Oh lovely, far off clime!

Somewhere beneath his "kivers"
Of blankets, robes and skins
A happy hunter shivers
With frostbites on his shins.

Somewhere are sun dogs gleaming
On endless fields of snow;
There in his hut is dreaming
The joyous Eskimo!

Somewhere, all cold and clammy
There lies a frigid land
That our kind Uncle Sammy
Should annex out of hand!

THE SIGNERS IN RIME.

Their Names Shall Honored Be Until the End of Time.

It will not be denied that the men who, on July 4, 1776, pledged "their lives, their fortunes and their sacred honor" in behalf of our national liberty deserve the most profound reverence from every American citizen. By arranging in rime the names of the signers according to the colonies from which they were delegated the Atlanta Constitution assists the youthful learner in remembering the names of the fathers of American independence:

The Massachusetts delegation

That signed our glorious Declaration

Were Hancock, Gerry, Robert Paine,

The great John Adams, and again

Another Adams, Samuel by name,

New Hampshire, called the Granite State,

Sen Whipple, Bartlett, Thornton great,

Alice in counseil and debate.

Rhode Island's delegates, we see,

Were Stephen Hopkins and Ellery,

Connecticut, excelled by none,

With Sherman, Wolcott, Williams and Huntington.

New York as delegates employed

Lewis Morris and William Floyd,

With Francis Lewis and Livingston,

Who died before the war was done,

New Jersey to the congress sent

Her honored college president,

John Witherspoon, with Stockton, Clark,

Hart, Hopkinson, all men of mark,

Though Pennsylvania need not blush

For Morris, Morton, Wilson, Rush,

And, though most men might seem as

dross

To Clymer, Taylor, Smith and Rogers,

To Franklin each his tribute brings,

Who neither lightning feared nor kings.

The men from Delaware—indeed

As true as steel in utmost need—

Were Rodney with McKean and Read.

"My Maryland" is proud to own

Her Carroll, Paca, Chase and Stone.

On old Virginia's roll we see

The gifted Richard Henry Lee,

And, just as earnest to be free,

His brother, Francis Lightfoot Lee,

And Wythe and Nelson, patriots true,

With Harrison and Braxton, too,

But of them all there was not one

As great as Thomas Jefferson.

North Carolina's chosen men

We know were Hooper, Hewes and Penn.

And South Carolina's vote was one—

By Rutledge, Heyward, Lynch and Middition.

From Georgia came Gwinnett and Hall

And Walton, too, the last of all

Who signed our precious Declaration,

The pride and glory of the nation.

DIED FOR HIS IDOL.

Heroism That Led to Napoleon's Title of "The Little Corporal."

It is related that Napoleon was once badly defeated at Coblenz by the Cossacks. After the battle he was surrounded by enemies and would have lost his life had he not been saved by the presence of mind of one of his soldiers, Corporal Spohn.

Realizing that Napoleon's only chance for life was in getting off the battle field unrecognized, the corporal begged the emperor to change hats and horses with him. The change was made even the smoke of battle had cleared away, and Napoleon, with his corporal's hat and mounted on a poor steed, rode away unnoticed, the Cossacks crowding around the corporal. Taking him prisoner, they led him in triumph to the Russian general. There the mistake was soon discovered, and the corporal's brave act cost him his life.

According to the Coblenz legend, Napoleon, in remembrance of Spohn's self sacrifice, always after this preferred a corporal's uniform to any other and wore it so often that his men came to speak of him familiarly as "Le Petit Caporal."—From "The Rhine," Translated by G. C. T. Bartley.

CURVE HID BURNING TRESTLE ON C. H. & D.

Passengers and Train Crew Have Miraculous Escape From Death When Burning Trestle Causes Wreck.

PROPERTY LOSS WILL REACH NEAR $10,000

Wreck Train Works All Night and Nearly All of Today Clearing Up Debris—Engineer Hoban and Fireman Pickens Badly Injured But Will Recover—Great Excitement Caused When News Spread That Many Washington Citizens Had Been Killed.

A burning trestle, hidden by a curve, was the cause of the disastrous wreck on the C. H. & D. railroad midway between Fairview and Austin, late Friday afternoon, in which Engineer Tom Hoban and Fireman Fletcher Pickens, both of Dayton, were badly injured, and the remainder of the train crew and passengers given the scare of their lives.

The wreck occurred after four o'clock when west-bound passenger train No. 203, in charge of Conductor Patrick Sweeney, rounded a sharp curve and when within few yards of the trestle, which is some 45 feet in length, and spans a small run near the Allen Hegler farm, Hoban discovered that smoke which had been pouring up apparently from the roadside, was coming from the trestle. Fireman Pickens discovered the danger, and shouting to Engineer Hoban, leaped to the roadside.

Engineer Hoban, who has since been commended for his coolness, stuck to his post until he had shoved the throttle home and applied the emergency brakes, and when he attempted to leap, it was too late. With a sudden jar the train began to come to a standstill, but the engine and tender were forced out upon the weakened trestle, where the rails spread, the tender turned half around and the baggage coach and front end of the smoker were left directly over the leaping flames.

The engine did not then go through the bridge, which was so ten feet in height.

In the crash Engineer Hoban sustained a fractured knee-cap and other painful injuries. In leaping Pickens struck upon his head and arms, suffering horrible gashes in the forehead from which the blood poured in profusion. His left wrist and back were sprained, and he suffered several ugly contusions about the shoulders and arms. He was rescued from a dangerous position by some of the passengers.

Almost instantly the flames began to eat into the baggage car and smoker. The baggage man, who was bruised by flying baggage, barely had time to collect the valuables entrusted into his care, throw them into the safe and close the door, when he was forced to leap from the burning car. The mail clerk also was compelled to beat a hasty retreat and practically all of the mail perished.

The thoroughly frightened passengers poured from the coaches and none were injured, although all were badly shaken by the sudden stopping of the train.

The flames were soon devouring the baggage car and smoker, and all baggage, express and mail went up in smoke with the cars and trestle. The rear coach was uncoupled and pushed back to a place of safety.

The trestle soon gave way under the heavy load, and most of the wreck dropped into the run. The engine was left partly in the chasm, with the front portion resting upon the bank.

The news of the disaster quickly reached this city, and there was a general stampede of automobiles and other vehicles for the scene of the disaster. It was feared a large number of persons had been seriously injured.

HEAVY ELECTRICAL STORMS SWEEP THE ENTIRE COUNTY

Heavy Downpours Accompany The Storms — Damage Remarkably Small Considering Great Amount Of Lightning — 400 Telephones Are Put Out of Commission and Fallen Live Wire Causes Small Blaze.

A series of violent electrical storms the most severe in months and at the same time doing the least damage, swept over Fayette county Friday night and early Saturday morning accompanied by high winds and heavy rainfall.

It is estimated that in the twelve hours to which the storm period was confined something like a thousand thunderbolts fell from the heavens in this county, but save for minor damages to outbuildings and trees and the usual temporary paralysis to telephone service no serious damage is reported from any part of the county.

The first and most severe storm descended on Washington about 6 o'clock Friday evening. Most of the damage locally was done at this time. The severe electrical shocks accompanying the storm brought in reports Saturday of damage to nearly 400 telephones under the control of the two local exchanges.

The crossing of a telephone wire with that of a disabled light wire caused a small fire at the home of Joseph Crosswhite on Harrison street and the fire department was called out about 7 o'clock, fortunately during a lull in the storm. On arrival the fire had been extinguished.

Some little trouble was caused by the flooding of a portion of Court street at the intersection of North, caused by a plugged sewer.

Over the county the damage was small and scattered. Lightning struck on the farm of Isaac Miller, three quarters of a mile south of Bloomingburg and killed four hogs but other than this there is no report of damage to any living thing.

Trees and small buildings were struck by lightning and rooted up by high winds in different localities but

A freight engine at Fairview was ordered to take the caboose and hurry to the scene, and brought the two injured men and most of the passengers to this city. The two men were taken to the Stitt-Todhunter offices and their wounds were dressed. Hoban was later taken to the Fayette hospital, while Pickens has returned to Dayton. A large crowd met the relief train upon its arrival here.

A wreck train from Dayton arrived upon the scene soon after dark, and worked steadily until late this afternoon, when the wreck was cleared up, the bridge rebuilt, and everything placed in order for traffic.

Trains were detoured over the B. & O. by way of Midland City until the road was opened to traffic.

The loss to the railroad company will reach near the $10,000 mark it is claimed.

That a far more serious wreck was averted is probably due to the coolness of Engineer Hoban.

Among Washington people on the ill-fated train were Hon. and Mrs. H. L. Hadley and granddaughter, Elizabeth Springer, Miss Prue Taylor, Mr. J. W. Anderson, Mrs. J. Star Smith, a Dahl-millikan salesman and others.

No serious damage is reported.

Reports were gleaned from New Holland, Good Hope, Jeffersonville, Bloomingburg, Millidgeville, New Martinsburg and other Fayette county villages Saturday and from each locality the storm damage is reported light as compared with the benefits to crops, the greatest damage being to telephone lines.

The heavy rains were welcomed by every one.

AUTO TAKES DITCH OCCUPANTS ESCAPE

While Frank Richert with an automobile load was on the way to view the C. H. & D. wreck Friday evening, in rounding a sharp curve the machine skidded and a moment later had plunged over the embankment and crashed through a barbed wire fence, badly damaging the machine.

Fortunately no one was badly hurt. Other machines picked up the occupants of the machine and returned them to this city. It was necessary to send another machine after the damaged auto.

WOMEN REPRIMANDED AND TURNED LOOSE

The Wolfe and Bryant women, of near the Stove factory, who faced Mayor Coffey on a charge of disorderly conduct, Friday afternoon, were finally released pending good behavior.

Before dismissing them, Mayor Coffey informed them that the next time they were arrested and he was not at his office at the time, that they would be locked up until he arrived.

It is the intention to recruit to 55 or 60 within the next few weeks. All are looking ahead to camp life in August.

First Lieutenant Ralph Hess and 2nd Lieutenant Hinton Cook, have been ordered to report at headquarters in Columbus, on July 8th, for examination.

MAY RECALL THE GRAND JURY SOON

Judge Carpenter and Prosecutor Maddox have talked over the advisability of recalling the grand jury to dispose of the cases which have come up since the last session.

So far no action has been taken, but if the grand jury is recalled, this will probably be done within the next week or ten days.

STRATFORD MALE QUARTET

ONE of the clever musical entertainments of the local Chautauqua will be that given by the Stratfords, vocalists and instrumentalists, a company of versatile young men, coached by Elias Day, the leading Lycum and Chautauqua coach of America. There is snap and vim in everything they do. They sing and play as though they liked it, and the audience can't help catching the enthusiasm of the moment. Their brass quartet work is especially noteworthy, and Mr. Duffield, the reader of the company, adds strength to the program. Coached by a rare artist who knows every angle of platform presentation, they present their entertainment in the most striking and original way. A big success for several seasons past, they come to our Chautauqua with the same personnel, and a record of enthusiastic approval which augurs a delightful presentation.

That's the rule here. When we are buying Furniture we don't try to see how cheap we can get the goods, but how good. When we've got a satisfactory quality we think of the price. That's the safest way to do. It's the most economical, too, if you are looking for real money-saving economy.

HIGHEST COURT UPHOLDS GRAVES

Columbus, Ohio, June 27.—Before recessing for the summer, the supreme court yesterday dealt a death blow to the Equity association, which a year ago attempted to secure a referendum on the Green workmen's compensation law, and established the constitutionality of the Greenlund liquor license law.

By the court's decree in the compensation case, the action of Secretary of State Charles H. Graves in throwing out the entire original petition of the Equity Association for referendum and his refusal to accept a supplemental petition apparently have been upheld.

Only the court's decision in refusing the writ of mandamus was announced. A detailed opinion is to be handed down.

A year ago the Equity Association filed with Secretary Graves a petition purporting to contain the signatures of 70,000 electors for a referendum on the compensation law. Governor Cox received information which led him to believe that fraud had been perpetrated and that thousands of the signatures were forgeries. With a number of assistants, he started an investigation, which proved the report was well founded. This evidence was turned over to Secretary Graves, who also conducted an inquiry covering many weeks. Numerous arrests of petition peddlers were made and many confessions of fraud were received.

At the hearing before Secretary Graves the Equity Association withdrew, alleging that it was beyond the purview of the secretary's authority to conduct such an investigation. Mr. Graves held the petitions a nullity, declaring them so involved in fraud that it was impossible to tell the valid signatures from forgeries. Charles S. Gongwer of Cleveland, secretary of the Equity Association, then offered to file 30,000 supplemental signatures, but these were refused by Mr. Graves on the ground that, as the original petition was null, there was nothing to be supplemented.

Nacional de Panama Co., Limited, with the Earl of Schrewsbury and Talbot as Chairman, which proposes to start a second Monte Carlo at Panama gives an alluring description of the wonderful gambling and amusement resort it intends to launch.

The company is to acquire 250 acres of land, and to operate under a charter "ensuring absolute freedom from all interference for a period of twenty-five years," according to the promise of its prospectus, but no statement is made of what authority is to give the charter, and to ensure the freedom from interference. The Casino is to include most of the attractions of Monte Carlo, a big hotel, an orchid garden which will be one of the wonders of the world, a bathing pavilion, pigeon shooting, tennis grounds, golf courses, and principally the gambling hall.

Panama is advertised as a splendid winter resort, while passengers will have 24 hours to spend on land while the steamers traverse the canal, thus ensuring a constant patronage. Profits to the stockholders must be large because the roulette tables will be run on a system giving the bank a much larger percentage of profits than the Monte Carlo company gets from the play there. Forty per cent dividends on the four pound share are predicted by the prospectus.

FIGHTING TO OVERCOME SLIDE

By Associated Press.

Panama, June 27.—Although the rainy season has been on for more than a month, the saturation of the earth has not increased the Cucaracha slide which the dredges have been racing to overcome. It is estimated that the dirt is now being removed twice as fast as it slides in the channel, and that a level of rest for the slide may soon be reached.

The depth of the channel is now over 38 feet and with a width of more than 200 feet it was more than sufficient to accommodate the Panama Railroad Steamship Alliance, of 4,000 tons, which was the first ocean liner to pass through the canal, without mishap. Even a 10,000-ton ship would have no difficulty, but the canal is not yet ready for the bigger warships.

MIKE DONLIN WANTS TO BE TRADED FOR MANAGERIAL JOB IN NEW LEAGUE

Mike Donlin, pinch puncher of the New York Giants, wants to be traded for a managerial post in the new major league which is to be formed from four International circuit clubs and four from the American association. Mike has spent most of his time on the bench this season and hankers for the field of action. Buck Herzog and Harry McCormick, former teammates of Donlin's, have both made good as team leaders, and Mike is confident of success if given the chance.

A black and white illustration of a man, identified as Mike Donlin, standing in a baseball uniform. He is wearing a dark jacket over a light-colored shirt, light-colored pants, and a cap. He is standing with his hands on his hips, looking towards the camera. The background is plain.

BASEBALL DIPLOMACY.

How Connie Mack Arouses Confidence In His Players.

In the American Magazine Eddie Collias of the Philadelphia Athletics tells how Manager Connie Mack inspires his players with confidence in themselves: "There comes to me an incident when he built McInnes' confidence wonderfully when Stuffy was still doing beach duty. In a game against Chicago a critical situation was looming up. In the eighth inning the score was 5 to 4 against us. After two were out Barry signaled and Lapp came to bat. By this time Mack was beginning to fidget and squirm uneasily in his seat, something he always does when the crisis of a game seems about to break. I heard Harry Davis, who was then captain, say:

"'Connie! Are you going to let bat?'"

"Davis had mentioned the pitcher, a notoriously weak hitter. I saw McInnes watching Mack out of the corner of his eye. The youngster trembled eagerly, hoping for a chance to go to bat in the pinch, and I think Mack saw him too, for he said to Davis rather loudly:

"'You know very well who is going to hit if Lapp gets on. There's only one man I'd put up—eh?'

"Davis inclined his head toward McInnes, and Mack nodded. McInnes saw all this, as Mack meant he should. Subsequently Lapp smashed out a two base hit, putting Barry on third, and McInnes, told to go to bat, rushed out from the dugout swelling with confidence. He had heard Mack as much as say there was 'no other man on the team he would trust in this pinch' but me. McInnes at that moment possessed overwhelming self confidence. A moment later he drove out the hit that won the game. Mack's little bit of diplomacy had met with success."

Titus of Kansas City is ahead in the American Association with 468. Then come W. Hinckman, Columbus, 362; Karger, St. Paul, 353; Severold, Louisville, 349; Killifer, Minneapolis, 343; Mirke, Cleveland, 341; Lake, Brooklyn, 362; Steel, St. Louis, 357; Brooklyn, 362; Dalton, Brooklyn, 348; Elberfeld, Brooklyn, 343; Byrne, Philadelphia, 336; Grant, New York, 329; G. Burns, New York, 326; Daubert, Brooklyn, 318. Manager Herzog continues to lead in stolen bases with 27. Club batting leadership is held by Philadelphia, at 266, and New York is second with 261. Mathewson is real leader among the pitchers with eleven victories and three defeats, and it is noteworthy that in the 115 innings he has pitched he had issued only twelve passes. Pfeffer of Brooklyn and Duke of St. Louis have won six and lost two each.

C. Walker of St. Louis and T. Cobb of Detroit still share leading batting honors in the American league with an average of 349 apiece. In the first ten hitters of the Johnson circuit then there follow: Witt, Detroit, 333; Baker, Philadelphia, 326; Crawford, Detroit, 325; Jackson, Cleveland, 333; 323; E. Walker, St. Louis, 321; Covaleskie, Detroit, 300; Shotton, St. Louis, 299; Lelively, Cleveland, 297. Philadelphia, with 259 and Detroit with 251 lead in club batting. Maisel of New York with 26 has most stolen bases. Hall, Detroit, Plank, Philadelphia, and Leonard, Boston, rank as three leading pitchers in the American League. Hall has won 4

SOLITARY LIFE IN JAIL.

It Has Finally Wrecked the Mind of Jesse Pomeroy.

That Jesse Pomeroy, the solitary life prisoner at Charlestown prison, has at last broken mentally under the strain of his years of confinement, became evident during the recent visit of Governor Walsh to the institution.

When the governor, in his inspection, stopped before the cell in Cherry Hill and the guard drew aside the iron shutter which has cut off Pomeroy from all communication with even the rest of his prison world, a strange thing occurred.

Pomeroy for the first time that he had been brought in contact with a chief executive since his imprisonment did not ask for a pardon or protest his innocence. He instead told the governor that he had a bank book he wanted to send his mother, but could not do so because of red tape.

Officers at the prison for some time have known that Jesse has considered himself immensely wealthy. The governor asked Pomeroy where the bank book was, and Pomeroy replied that it was in the prison office. He further said that he had written to the prison authorities about the bank book several times, but had received no satisfaction. The governor promised he would look after the bank book.

For thirty-six years Pomeroy has been kept in solitary confinement, and many alienists have given opinions regarding what effect it would have upon his sanity. It is now believed that Pomeroy has weakened mentally under the strain.—Boston Post.

THE WALL STREET JOURNAL DEFENDS COX TAX PLANS

Governor Cox's tax policy is stoutly defended by the Wall Street Journal editorially, replying to a letter received from an Elyria lawyer protesting against the new system and the use of corporation stockholders' lists to ferret out tax dodgers. The lawyer complained bitterly against the use of the stockholders' lists as a means of revealing the taxable wealth of investors. In answer to this criticism the Wall Street Journal says, editorially: "If Governor Cox of Ohio has secured the names of the stockholders of any corporation it is a credit to his enterprise, and he deserves an engagement on the best newspaper in Ohio at a large salary when his term is completed. He not only has a new sense, but he realizes that publicity is the best protection for all the people. If these taxes are legitimate the stockholders in the U. S. Steel Corporation, or the New York Central, or the National Tube Company should pay their proper quota to the support of their state. This newspaper does not stand for lying to evade taxes or anything else. It believes that unjust taxation should be fought in a proper and constitutional way. If the taxpayers of Ohio have made honest returns, they need not care two cents whether Governor Cox had secured these lists of stockholders or not. Let this matter be perfectly plain. People who evade their taxes and complain if they are found out, need not apply to the Wall Street Journal for defense. If they are constitutionally wronged, they have their constitutional remedy, and if they do not like the government of the state they are living in they can take their capital elsewhere."

SUCH BAD FORM, YE KNOW!

PAT KNEW THE KIND OF BUG IT WAS.

HENRY A. ADRIAN, "HE LUTHER BURBANK MAN."

TWO verdant Irishmen, but late of the old sod, were among the auditors at a western Chautauqua last summer when Prof. Henry A. Adrian of Santa Barbara, Cal., was giving his lecture on "Luther Burbank and His Work," which he will give here during Chautauqua week. They had listened intently while Adrian told of the marvelous achievements of Burbank in removing the spines from cactus, growing potatoes of prodigious size, changing the hue of a rose, growing a new variety of peas to order, removing the pit from a plum, producing cherries twice the size of any heretofore seen, and had gazed in open-mouthed astonishment at the specimen plants shown by the lecturer. They were plainly "stumped" and loath to accept all they heard at its face value.

While the round table discussion was going on they moved out from the tent and sat down in the shade of a tree. While they were resting an enormous land turtle waddled slowly into view. "Be gobs," said one of the awed spectators, "What is that?"

"Be quiet, you blamed fool, don't let everybody know ye're jest over," said Pat, "that's a Burbank potato bus."

the Salvadorean protest was based on the Gulf of Fonseca, where the United States is to get concessions for a naval base if the treaty is ratified.

Panama, June 27.—Difficulties of a serious nature in regard to the awards of the American Panama joint land commission have arisen between the American and Panamanian members. The entire matter has been referred to Washington.

LARGE BARN BURNS

The barn of John Johnson, near Sabina, was struck by lightning Friday night and burned to the ground.

It was one of the largest barns in the Sabina vicinity and a large amount of hay as well as farm implements and other stocks were burned with the barn.

REVENUE CUTTER SERVICE.

How It Came to Be Placed Under the Treasury Department.

The United States revenue cutter service is a military arm of the government attached to and under the direction of the treasury department. The service was organized in 1790 and constituted the original naval force of the country. There was at that time no navy department, and the service was placed under the treasury department, where it has remained ever since.

It is charged with the enforcement of the navigation and customs laws of the United States, the assistance of vessels in distress, the protection of the sealing industry in Alaska, the enforcement of the quarantine laws, the destruction of derelicts and other floating dangers to navigation and numerous other duties appropriate to its class of vessels. Each winter, by direction of the president, a number of the cutters patrol the coast for the special purpose of assisting vessels in distress.

The service co-operates with the navy when directed by the president and has so co-operated in every war in which the United States has been engaged. It is sometimes called the revenue marine service, but revenue cutter service is the proper name. There are forty-three cutters in the service, and they carry from one to five or six guns each.—Philadelphia Press.

JESSIE REMEMBERED.

And the Worst of It Was That She Insisted on Going into Particulars.

Mrs. Goby had been in her new home a month when she received a call from Mrs. Toby. Mrs. Toby was accompanied by her five-year-old daughter, Jessie.

"What a beautiful house you have, Mrs. Goby!" said Mrs. Toby.

"Isn't it nice?"

"It is indeed," replied Mrs. Toby.

"And, do you know, I intended calling on you a fortnight ago, but have been so busy."

"Oh, mamma," chimed in little Jessie.

"You did come!"

"How dare you talk like that? Speak when you're spoken to," interrupted Mrs. Toby, coloring up.

Tears welled into the child's eyes, and Mrs. Goby sympathetically said: "There, don't cry, little dear. You must have been mistaken."

"I wasn't," blurted out Jessie.

"Mamma knocked ever so many times and said to me: 'Come on. I suppose we shall have to go to the expense of getting tea in town.'"

The silence that followed was frigid.—London Telegraph.

The Minister Was Puzzled.

At a marriage service performed some time ago in a little country church in Georgia, when the minister said in a solemn tone, "Wilt thou have this man to be thy wedded husband?" instead of the woman answering for herself a great man's voice answered: "I will."

The minister looked up, very much perplexed, and paused. He repeated the sentence, and again the same gruff voice answered, "I will."

Again the minister looked up surprised, not knowing what to make of it, when one of the groomsmen at the end of the row said:

"She is deaf. I am answering for her."—Lippincott's.

The Correct Shape.

Patience—Why, he's been in love with her for a long time, hasn't he?

Patrice—Yes, but it has at last taken shape.

"What shape has it taken?"

"Diamond shape."—Yonkers Statesman.

Flattering.

Wag—I like your new play, old man.

Author—I'm glad of that. When did you see it?

Wag—Oh, I haven't seen it, but the title looks jolly on the busses.—London Opinion.
